

Walk.Talk.Share.Draw.Record.Think.Feel.Listen.
It's not a history walk. It's what we make it.

***

Saturday 10 June: *Bath's Last Legal Slaveowners
..setting the scene...From the City centre to Beckfords Tower.

Sunday 11 June: *Joining the points of the Triangular Trade(1)
Beckfords Tower to Saltford Brass Mill.

Monday 12 June: *The Brass Mills.
Saltford Brass Mill to Keynsham Brass Mill.

Tuesday 13 June: *Gathering a virtual cargo (1)
Keynsham train station to Bristol.

Saturday 17 June: *Workers walk
Weston Lock to Saltford Brass Mill

Monday 19 June: *Joining the points of the Triangular Trade (2)
Bath City Centre to Keynsham Brass Mill.

Tuesday 20 June: *Gathering a virtual cargo (2)
Keynsham to Bristol.

Wednesday 21 June: *Sunrise to sunset legacies in the tide
From Avonmouth to Bath along the river.

take part on foot or online
tw @walknowlive fb nowwearewalking

In the late 1830's, as Government 'compensation' for the release of their slaves, former slaveowners in Bath and Bristol shared part of a total payout of £20million. Formerly enslaved people received nothing.

Sugar, tobacco and cotton continued to be harvested. Industrialists and financiers continued to enjoy wealth derived from slave-ownership. Slavery continues.

***

Participatory performative walks along the river: alert for sounds, sites, relics, voices, tears, matter suspended in the waters.

***

Join Richard White for an interesting walk.

More info and booking:

www.walknowtracks.co.uk

www.bathfringe.co.uk

www.bnhc.org.uk/festival-of-nature-type/festival-events/

BATH SPA UNIVERSITY

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL ENGLAND

FESTIVAL OF NATURE
Bristol to Bath 8-25 June 2017 