RACHAEL HOWARD

MA ROYAL COLLEGE OF ART
LECTURER-- BATH SPA UNIVERSITY

Rachael uses her unique and insightful drawings to capture the very essence of her subjects, transporting the mundane and every-day into something far more beautiful and enticing than the sum of its subject matter parts.

Her fascination with the passing world, and her habit of capturing it on paper, may be the start of the process – and an important one at that – but it is just a beginning. Those early drawings are transplanted into graphic, screen-printed, appliqued and machine embroidered narrative images – beautifully crafted and exactingly worked motifs.
